AURORA INSTITUTE Symposium

OCTOBER 24 – 26, 2022 | VIRTUAL

“Leading Competency-Based Education Redesign”

2022 SPONSOR PROSPECTUS

aurora-institute.org/symposium2022/

About the Aurora Institute Symposium

Aurora Institute will convene 1,400+ attendees from across the nation at the Aurora Institute Symposium, held virtually on October 24–26, 2022. Two-thirds of conference attendees are K–12 education innovators, school and district leaders actively implementing personalized, competency-based learning new models and designs. Other roles represented include technical assistance providers, non-profit organizations working in education innovation, policymakers, researchers, and other leaders.

The Aurora Institute Symposium is the leading conference for K–12 education practitioners and leaders seeking to learn about breakthrough practices and policies for transforming teaching and learning, leading education systems change, and shifting to personalized, competency-based learning. Attendees return to their schools and districts prepared to plan and launch new personalized, competency-based learning and student-centered approaches. The Symposium is the premier conference to expose district and school leaders to new ideas, trends, products, and services. These learning and networking opportunities catalyze change and enable personalized, competency-based education systems to flourish, as demonstrated in our 2021 Symposium attendee evaluations:

- » 96% reported the overall quality of the Symposium was excellent or good
- » 91% would attend a future Symposium
- » 94% increased their knowledge as a result of participating
- » “The Symposium’s keynotes and sessions have inspired me to rise up and take action.”
- » “The Symposium’s focus on personalized learning has propelled me as a school leader to work alongside our staff in support of personalized learning as a core goal of our school’s teaching and learning practices.”

Through keynotes and more than 40 sessions highlighting breakthrough practices and policies, the Symposium is designed to inspire and equip attendees with new knowledge and best practices, and spark action by leaders to implement new learning designs. Session strands include: Shifting to Competency-Based Education; Transforming Education Systems; Centering Mental Health, Well-Being, & Social Emotional Learning; Redesigning/Creating New Learning Models/Redesign; Enabling Anytime/Anywhere Learning; Modernizing Professional Learning; and more.

Please join us as a sponsor of the Aurora Institute
Symposium virtual event on October 24–26, 2022.

Key benefits include:

- Substantial exposure to district and school leaders implementing personalized, competency-based systems, who are decision makers and who are seeking tools, products, and services to support their work.
- Branding exposure and recognition through Aurora Institute Symposium marketing materials, such as our Symposium website, email blasts, program book, social media channels, and during keynote plenary sessions.
- Premier and Diamond sponsors receive one-time use of the conference attendee list for a promotional/marketing opportunity.
- Complimentary conference registrations for your staff to have access to the field’s leading thinking around transforming education systems toward personalized, competency-based models.
