About the Aurora Institute Symposium

The Aurora Institute invites you to exhibit at the Aurora Institute Symposium on November 3-5, 2024 in New Orleans, Louisiana. The Aurora Institute Symposium is the leading conference for K-12 education practitioners and leaders seeking to learn about breakthrough practices and policies for transforming teaching and learning, leading education systems change, and shifting to personalized, competency-based learning. The Symposium is the premier conference to expose district and school leaders to new ideas, trends, products, and services. These learning and networking opportunities catalyze change and enable personalized, competency-based education systems to flourish, as demonstrated in our prior Symposium evaluations:

- 92% reported the overall quality of the Symposium was excellent or good
- 90% would attend a future Symposium

Exhibitor Pricing:

10'x10' booth: $4,500

Additional cost for corner booth: $1,000

Exhibit Hall Pass: $750

The Aurora Institute Symposium 2024 attendees are leaders making purchasing decisions for their districts, schools, and programs.

The Aurora Institute Symposium 2024 is designed to provide exhibitors with numerous high-value opportunities to engage directly with attendees, giving you visibility and access to key decision-makers at the district, school, and program levels.

“This conference was very well organized. The events in the hall drove traffic to our booth, and I had many meaningful conversations.”
